PATH Activities in August

- In collaboration with Charlottesville Area Transit, PATH provided a travel training session for older adults at The Center at Belvedere, helping participants build confidence in using public transportation.
- Back to School Bash and Free Rural Health Clinic event in Palmyra. The free community event brought together local organizations and healthcare providers to help families prepare for the new school year while connecting residents with important health and community resources.
- In partnership with Cville Village, PATH conducted a hands-on travel training session for a group of older adults with low vision at The Center at Belvedere, helping participants build confidence, become more comfortable navigating the transit system, and gain practical experience using public transportation independently.
- PATH hosted a Transportation Solutions Workshop at the Independence Senior Living community in Pantops. During this session, local residents had the opportunity to learn in detail about the full range of transportation services available in Charlottesville.
- PATH staff continued answering calls through PATH Helpline and assisted older adults and people with disabilities with finding transportation services.
- PATH staff also participated in Nelson, Louisa, and Fluvanna Inter-Agency Council meetings, as well as the Move2Health Equity group, to strengthen community partnerships and coordinate efforts related to transportation access and mobility in the region.

Marketing

- PATH continued a digital marketing outreach campaign, distributing promotional materials to multiple local organizations and institutions.
- PATH continued marketing campaign in CAT buses.
- PATH continued the marketing campaign of the Transportation Assistance Fund.
- PATH assisted Cville Village with marketing efforts.
- We issued another edition of PATH's newsletter.

Volunteer Driver Program Support

PATH continues support of local volunteer driver programs (Cville Village, Here to Stay in Wintergreen).

PATH offers organizational and substantive assistance for volunteer programs. We provided:

- answering calls, software management and scheduling rides for Cville Village members
- know-how and program development guidance
- staff and marketing assistance
- office support

Transportation Assistance Fund

PATH continues to support individuals with critical transportation needs through the Transportation Assistance Fund, currently funded by the "Twice is Nice" grant. The fund provides financial assistance for non-emergency medical transportation, helping eligible residents access essential healthcare appointments when no other transportation options are available.
